"We have been on several other birding tours through VENT and other companies. This was by far the best one we have been on and will be the standard against future trips we take will be compared. The guides were all over the top excellent, the food and accommodations were wonderful, the boat staff was super, and the logistics were top-notch. In the age of Covid, the trip was planned and executed in a way that we felt safe." – Andy and Janet Hoyne, Amazon River Cruise, January 2022

"Beautiful ship! The crew were fantastic. Would consider another voyage with same ship. All leaders were willing to go the extra effort to insure all participants were comfortable, safe, and met expectations. Presentations were very informative. Learned so much from the leaders."

*VENT tours set the bar for excellence. Well planned out and able to make adjustments when needed. Victor and staff are the best!" – Joaquin Ngarangad, Lesser Antilles aboard the Sea Cloud, March 2020*
